Subject: draft paper on the Next Generation of Risk Assessment

Dear all,

I have attached a draft review article, intended for Environmental Health Perspectives, based on the final EPA report Next Generation Risk Assessment: Incorporation of Recent Advances in Molecular, Computational, and Systems Biology. I am requesting your comments by March 6. See additional information below. Also, carefully review authorship to ensure the names and affiliations are correct. In particular, I do not want to inadvertently leave anyone out that should be recognized. Feel free to contact me with any questions you may have at Ex. 6 - Personal Privacy or by email.

Thanks everyone for your help.

Editing the Document

1. Please make all edits in WORD track changes or in comment bubbles
2. Please provide the complete citation(s) and URL(s) for any new reference(s) you add in comment bubbles. If you include a PubMed ID, just include author and year.

Submitting Your File

1. Save your copy of the document with the following name, where your XYZ is your initials and MMDDYY is the date you send your file: NexGen_Article_010915_XYZ_MMDDYY.
2. Save a copy of your document as a backup before you submit it.

3. Please send your edits to Whitney Mitchell
